

Campbellsville
UNIVERSITY

ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

ABOUT CAMPBELLVILLE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1906, Campbellville University is a private Kentucky-based Christian institution dedicated to academic excellence solidly grounded in the liberal arts. The University's main campus is located in the city of Campbellville, with regional sites throughout Kentucky and in Los Angeles and Ontario, Canada. Core values include fostering academic excellence; providing an environment conducive for student success; upholding the dignity of all persons; valuing diverse perspectives within a Christ-centered community; and modeling servant leadership through effective stewardship.

Campbellville University, ranked in U.S. News' "America's Best Colleges" Top 100 Regional Universities of the South, offers its 9,769 (Fall 2023) students more than 120 programs of study including Ph.D., Doctorate of Chiropractic, 31 master's programs and 53 bachelor's programs, as well as 12 certificate/endorsements. Additionally, there are 57 fully online academic programs, including six associate's, eight bachelor's and 31 master's degrees, as well as 12 certificates/endorsements. Most recently, Campbellville University opened the first and only school of Chiropractic Medicine in Kentucky, which is located in Harrodsburg at the Conover Education Center.

The University is home to a diverse student population with minorities and underrepresented students making up 12% of the domestic and 49% of the combined domestic and international populations representing 95 countries.

President, Dr Joseph Hopkins

Dr. Joseph Hopkins was named President of Campbellville University in February 2022. Previously, he served as Dean of the Samford University (AL) School of the Arts, Dean of the Petrie School of Music at Converse College (SC), and Chair of the Department of Music at the University of Evansville (IN). He founded the Harlaxton International Chamber Music Festival and served on the faculty of the Operafestival di Roma (Rome, Italy). In addition, Dr. Hopkins holds degrees from Shorter College, Baylor University and Indiana University. He completed a diploma from the Institute for Management and Leadership in Education at Harvard University and was named a Fulbright Senior Specialist to Indonesia. He has presented and published with national and international arts and administration conferences.

Campbellsville boasts a vibrant and varied student life, offering a wide variety of on-campus clubs and organizations. Many activities involve students, faculty and staff sharing togetherness that is unique to small Christian campuses. There is a strong emphasis on religious life and activities, as well as academic clubs and organizations and professional organizations.

Athletically, Campbellsville's 28 teams, known as the Tigers and Lady Tigers, compete in 18 NAIA – Mid-South Conference sports. Collectively they have won 71 regular season and 45 conference championships as well as 22 individual and team national championships, including most recently the 2023 Men's Indoor Track & Field National Championship. The University has a strong intramural program as well.

In addition to athletics being an important part of the Campbellsville campus, CU–Harrodsburg, known as the Pioneers, boasts eight teams that compete in the Mideast region of the National Christian College Athletic Association. The Pioneers have won one team national championship in 2021-22 and two Mideast Championships in 2022 and 2024 (men's basketball). Three additional sports compete nationally.

Campbellsville University's Campbellsville campus is located one-half mile from downtown Campbellsville, 82 miles southwest of Lexington, and 80 miles southeast of Louisville. Additionally the University has off-campus centers throughout the Commonwealth in Louisville, Harrodsburg, Hodgenville, Owensboro, Somerset and Windsor-Ontario. In 2019, the University opened an education center in Los Angeles to offer a Master of Marriage and Family Therapy.

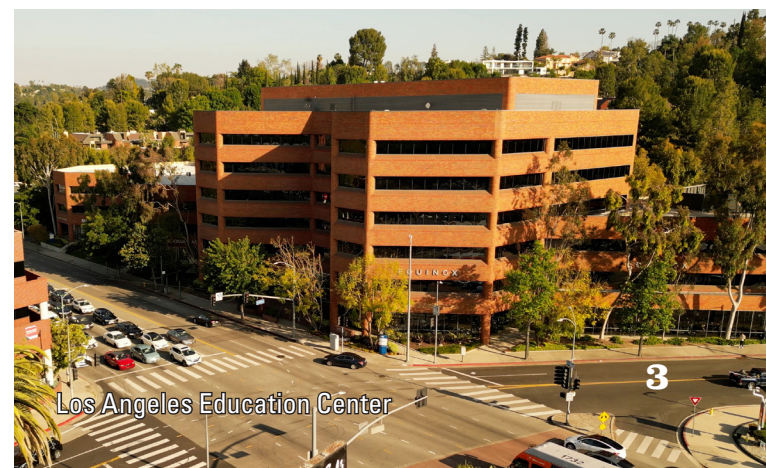

Louisville - Ella Louise "Lou" Montgomery Building

Harrodsburg - Conover Education Center

Hodgenville - The Brockman Center

Los Angeles Education Center

CAMPUS LOCATIONS
FALL 2023
MAIN CAMPUS	1950
ONLINE	1753
LOUISVILLE	4042
HARRODSBURG	406
SOMERSET	147
LOS ANGELES	80
DUAL CREDIT SCHOOLS	1109
OTHER*	282

*Other includes CKCA, CUTTC, E-Town, Garrard Co., Hodgenville, Isaiah House, Owensboro and Paris.

For more information about the University:
www.campbellsville.edu

ABOUT THE POSITION

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Faculty

- Promotes excellence in instruction and student success
- Assists with issues and concerns pertaining to established policies and procedures including resolving difficult and sensitive student inquiries and complaints
- Provides leadership for professional development, program review and general education

Curriculum

- Provides leadership for development and refinement of academic programs
- Leads faculty and academic staff in making data-informed decisions
- Builds and fosters collaborative programs and initiatives such as articulation agreements and collaborative partnerships
- Promotes the effective use of technology in the instructional environment

Team Development

- Supervises and evaluates direct reports including Director of Library Services, Director of the Cheatham Center for Teaching and Learning, and Director of Research and Creative Scholarship
- Active involvement in recruiting new faculty and academic staff as needed

Broader University Involvement

- Provides oversight to the College of Arts and Sciences
- Serves as member of the President's Cabinet
- Serves on University committees as assigned
- Treats members of the campus community with fairness, dignity and respect – seeking a spirit of unity and harmony to achieve a common mission
- Honors the mission of Campbellsville University and complies with policies and procedures
- Fulfills other duties as assigned by the Vice President for Academic Affairs

Individual employees are expected to conduct themselves, both on and off campus, in a manner becoming an employee of a Christian institution. The employee should uphold the highest standards of conduct in terms of honesty, truthfulness, respectful attitude and conduct toward others. Each individual associated with Campbellsville University is to perform his or her daily responsibilities mindful of the intent of the institutional mission statement and core values.

QUALIFICATIONS

The ideal candidate will possess these qualifications:

- Earned doctorate degree from a regionally accredited institution
- Qualifications appropriate for a tenured appointment in an academic department
- Five years or more experience as a department head or dean at a university with an exhibited understanding and readiness to contribute to the liberal arts mission of the institution
- Demonstrated experience in working collaboratively with faculty and academic staff
- Ability to and evidence of working effectively with diverse constituencies
- A commitment to lifelong learning and professional growth
- Effective interpersonal, communication and organizational skills
- Strong commitment to CU's authentic Christ-centered mission
- Experience with academic leadership at a multi-site institution preferred

ABOUT THE CAMPBELLSVILLE COMMUNITY

Established in 1817, Campbellsville is an historic small city and the county seat of Taylor County, which, due to its shape, is known as “the heart of Kentucky.”

Brimming with southern hospitality and charm,

Campbellsville has been listed by the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce as a Certified City since 1987. Its 11,689 residents (26,443 in Taylor County) enjoy award-winning school systems, an outstanding health care facility, extremely low cost of living, and a diverse, vibrant economy with a strong business and employment base.

Outdoor enthusiasts will love Green River Lake, an 8,200-acre recreational paradise that provides ample boating, camping, fishing and hiking opportunities. History buffs will be fascinated by dozens of historic sites including Civil War battlegrounds and Confederate hospitals.

Downtown’s Main Street offers a charming variety of shops and eateries, as well as many buildings noted on the National Register of Historic Places.

Campbellsville is approximately 85 miles from the larger cities of Louisville, Lexington, Bowling Green and Somerset. Taylor County is within a day’s drive of many major metropolitan areas, including Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville and Cincinnati.

For more information, visit
campbellsville.us and taylorcounty.us

To apply for this position, visit:
highereducationleadershipsearch.com/candidate-portal-form

To nominate someone for this position, e-mail:
nominations@highereducationleadershipsearch.com

Geralyn McClure Franklin, Ph.D. will be assisting Campbellsville University with the search. If you have questions or would like to have a confidential conversation about the position, call 256-239-2305 or e-mail: geralynf@highereducationleadershipsearch.com

Candidates for this position will be considered through
May 10, 2024.

HIGHER EDUCATION LEADERSHIP SEARCH

www.highereducationleadershipsearch.com

