ABOUT THE PHILLIPS MASTER OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPY PROGRAM AT THE LOS ANGELES EDUCATION CENTER

The foundation of Campbellsville University's Los Angeles Education Center (LAEC) is its Phillips Master of Marriage and Family Therapy program. The Phillips MMFT program traces its roots to the beginnings of family therapy in the early 1970s. For more than 50 years, the MMFT program has provided educational and community mental health services in Los Angeles' San Fernando Valley. Currently, the MMFT program teaches classes and offers psychotherapy from a beautiful campus in Encino, California.

The LAEC is located at the base of the Santa Monica Mountains, north of Bel Air and Brentwood, and surrounded by Sherman Oaks, Reseda, and Tarzana. Encino is a mix of urban and suburban, with a suburban feel and layout. It has a population of 47,279 and is considered one of the best places to live in California. Encino is home to lakes, picnic areas, golf, walking trails, many parks and fine dining. Typical of Los Angeles, Encino has a mix of Mediterranean, Spanish, midcentury modern, bungalow, and Cape Cod-style living spaces. The campus is located near two major freeway arteries and is central to many key locations in Los Angeles.
